All the TimeSPRINTERS FOR THE FURLONGS;
GOSSIPER WINS AT LONG ODDS

The running of five-eighths of a mile by Spohn in 59.4 seconds, and the winning of the sprinter at odds of 10 to 1, were the features of the card at Buena Vista yesterday. Spohn's remarkable time came in the big race of the day, in which a fine field of sprinters faced the barrier. Spohn was the favorite, and after a brief flash in front by the speedy Fern L. he took the pace, stood off a bruising challenge from Silver Stocking and then was good enough to hold out in the last sixteenth against Executive.

Five furlongs under a minute is fine time for any track and any field, and on Buena Vista, which is naturally slow, is an exceptional performance.

And how the stand yelled when Gossiper flashed under the wire in the third race at six furlongs. Like Albion H., who won at 59 to 1, Gossiper was overclouded to the skies, and was apparently not given a chance to beat Alra, Senehall and Good Ship. Snowball and Albion H. raced each other out of the running in setting the pace, and with Van Dusen saving lots of ground entering the stretch, Gossiper came on and stood off the closing bids of Alra and Good Ship. Alra and Goodship both were out in the stretch, Goodship taking almost to the outside rail as in his last out. With Gossiper dropping so far back, Judge Skinner warned Van Dusen to do his best, and the boy made good.

Van Dusen rode three winners in a row, and placed in his other race, setting the record for riding honors at the meeting. Misprison won the opener from an ordinary lot of milers, just getting up to outside rail as in his last out. Gossiper scored his first win of the meeting in the second race at one mile, just forging through to beat Captain Burnett.

Kirschbaum forced Frieze all the way in the fifth race, and by his hard efforts got the opening favorite first at seven furlongs in track record time. Hammer and Marchmont fought head and head for the pace, Marchmont being the first to give way.

Hannis and Cheswade both closed strong for the place and show, while Thomas Calhoun, after showing good speed out in front, gave up the struggle in the last eighth.

Marion Casey scored his fifth win of the meeting by taking the last race at seven furlongs in track record time. Hammer and Marchmont fought head and head for the pace, Marchmont being the first to give way.

Today's card has two purse events, one for the crack sprinters, and another for the youngsters. In which Helen Barbee will appear for the third time. The other four races have well matched fields.

JOHNSON SEEMED HOW HE WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP

New York, July 14.—Jack Johnson had an opportunity yesterday to see just how cleverly and thoroughly he beat James J. Jeffries in the fight at Reno. Accompanied by his wife, the heavyweight champion went to the plant of the company in Flatbush, where a special exhibition of the pictures was made for his benefit.

Johnson seemed well pleased with the pictures, but his wife apparently took a greater interest in them. When her husband landed a punch on his opponent, she gave a chuckle of delight and patted the champion on the back.

At the beginning of the second round, Mrs. Johnson asked her husband to point out the blow that closed Jeffries' right eye.

"Now watch close when we break from this clinch," said Jack, as the second round was being put on. As the fighters separated, a black arm shot out and caught Jeffries on the eye. "It was a dandy," remarked Mrs. Johnson, as she again patted the broad-shoulders of her husband.

The champion had nothing to say again until the tenth round was reached, when he said to go away. "Here is where he starts to go away. It is most all over now."

Row With Umpire and a Fan

St. Louis, July 14.—Umpire Klem benched Manager Dahlen, Pitcher Knetzer and Shortstop T. Smith of the Brooklyn team this afternoon during the game with the St. Louis Nationals.

In the seventh inning Klem called Lennox out on what looked to be a ball to Dahlen, who was coaching at third base. He made a remark not to the liking of the umpire, who ordered him to the club house.

Brooklyn players on the bench jeered at the order and Klem promptly benched Knetzer and Smith. After the game a spectator criticized Manager Brogan and his team.

Brogan and Mowrey started after the spectator, Mowrey with a couple of baseball bats, but they were prevented from doing any harm by a police sergeant.

UTAH FUEL S. PEMBROKES 6.

An interesting game of baseball was played at Walker's Wednesday afternoon between the Utah Fuel and Pembroke teams, resulting in a victory for the coalmen by a score of 8 to 6. This game was the rubber game of the season, each team having won one game earlier in the season. The Fuelites started early, hammering in five runs in the first half. Pembroke's got three in each of the fourth and fifth and were blanked for the balance of the session. The coalmen got two in the sixth and one more in the seventh, totaling eight. Johnson, the coal dealer's catcher, took the plum with the willow, getting three two-baggers out of four times up. Batteries: Naylor and Johnson; Gardner and A. Gardner.

The money was placed in Graneey's hands as stakeholder, and Kaufman alleges that he has been unable to recover it.

PLAN GREAT FIELD AT GARDEN CITY FOR AVIATION CONTESTS

New York, July 14.—The largest grandstand in this country soon will be erected near Garden City, L. I., for the grand aviation tournament to be held there next October. The structure will be fashioned somewhat after the old Coliseum of Rome, being circular in form, with each seat and box commanding a clear view of every part of the flying field. It will be substantially built and designed to remain as a permanent fixture in a great national aviation park.

If present negotiations are carried through, a large tract of level ground will be leased there for a period of years and Garden City will become the central point for all great flying exhibitions in America. All the important national and international events will take place there.
